

Welcome to Addiscombe!

The Lower Addiscombe Road shops include a selection of cafes, charity shops, a large Co-op and Post Office (Blackhorse Lane end of the shops), a Sainsbury's Local and FreshCo. There's also a DIY shop, laundrette, chemists, fish and chip and kebab shops, among others. Ashburton Park also has a cafe. There is a youth centre in Morland Avenue (Sir Philip Game centre) and a nursery in Elgin Road. Look out for bin collection times on the Council website.

There are several tram routes from Sandilands tram stop on Addiscombe Road, to Croydon (two stops to East Croydon station for various London termini or Gatwick and Brighton) and Wimbledon one way and Elmers End and Beckenham Junction (via Addiscombe), and New Addington in the other. There are four bus routes 119, 466, 194 and 198 from Sandilands, and three along Lower Addiscombe Road. Lloyd Park is a 10 minute walk from Sandilands, and also has a tram stop. Addington Hills are accessible from there.

Your HOME Residents' Association neighbours invite you to join them at events; also look out for Neighbourhood Watch alerts. Email athome@addiscombe.net for more information and contacts.
